What to expect in ELJ103

- Chs. 10-15 of Genki 1 and Genki 2
- From learning Japanese to using Japanese
- Project-based assignments
 - COIL project with Meiji Gakuin University in Japan (Fall 2021)
- Two individual interviews (at the beginning and the end of the semester)
- Mid-term, final, and quizzes

Resources for studying Japanese at the intermediate level

1. Experiential learning

- Get involved in Japan-related organizations in NYC. See the list of major Japan-related organizations in NYC here: <https://bit.ly/3lMy09z>

2. Learn through interaction with native/near-native speakers

- Use the tutoring service in the Modern Language Lab. If the schedule doesn't work, use the online tutoring/language exchange service (see the list <https://bit.ly/3Ayh4CL> here).

3. Self-paced resources

- Explore self-study Japanese online resources: <https://bit.ly/37BRTmk>

4. Vocabulary, vocabulary, and vocabulary...

- Use the study resources (vocabulary lists, audio files, flash cards etc) that I share at the beginning of the semester
- See <https://genki3.japantimes.co.jp/en/student/> for other good resources
